

CLARKSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Expand your Horizons Reach your potential!

January 11th 2018

Friday's home basketball game has been moved to tonight. There will be no JV games; it will be a varsity double header starting at 6:00 pm. Come out and support your Wildcats.

First semester ACT Prep and Psychology students should pick up their binders from Mrs. Sullivan by Friday. Unclaimed binders will be recycled next week.

Students interested in building a team for the Dodge ball assembly should see Mrs. Sullivan this week to pick up registration information.

Senior Parents/Guardians: As a reminder, a TN Promise requirement is to complete the FAFSA by January 16, 2018. If you signed up for TN Promise, and wait until after the deadline to complete the FAFSA, you lose eligibility for that program. There are no exceptions. If you need help in completing the FAFSA, a financial aid specialist will be in the CHS library on Thursday, January 11, from 8:00-11:00 a.m. you do not need an appointment. If you want to take advantage of this opportunity, please bring any of the following that are applicable. Social Security numbers for parents, stepparent (if applicable) and the students, Driver's license number (student), Student's Alien registration number (if student is not a US citizen). Tax return from 2016, Final paychecks from 2016 (if available), 2016 W-2 (if available), All other financial records including untaxed income, savings, investments, etc., Parents wedding date and/or divorce date.

CLUBS AND SPORTS

Junior Civitan is collecting items for the battered women's shelter and candy for Valentine's Day candy grams. If you would like to donate to either of these causes, bring donations to Mrs. Sullivan.
