

CLARKSVILLE HIGH SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Expand your Horizons, Reach your potential!

May 19, 2017

Students should report to the breezeway to sign out after exam.

All Cosmetology students who have not picked up their kit need to do so today.

Seniors: do you need a job? This Friday, May 19, Hankook will hold a hiring day for seniors. The event will be held at Workforce Essentials, located at 523 Madison St. from 9am to 2pm. Students must be 18 years old and able to pass a drug test and physical assessment. This is a hiring event so you must dress professionally and bring your resume as individuals will be interviewed and possibly hired on the spot. Students will earn $12 hour with full benefits (medical, dental and vision) to include 401K options. Hankook will provide a 50% match after the employees first year. Individuals fully vest after 5 years. If you have finals and cannot make the Friday event, there may be an additional hiring day next week. Stay tuned...

Summer school registration will be at CHS on May 31 and June 1 at 8-11 a.m. and 3-6 p.m. the cost is $125 a semester class. Summer school is June 5 through June 22. Please see the Counseling office for additional information.

All students need to return their final transcript form that they received in their English class to Mrs. Goins in guidance as soon as possible.

Students, if you are exempt from any exam please start bringing your dismissal note's in now. The notes should have your first and last name, date, parent's phone number and signature. No one will be allowed to leave and return without a doctor's note this includes for lunch. There will be no over the phone dismissals.

Do you volunteer throughout the school year? Would you like to be recognized with a special pin you may wear for recognition at your graduation ceremony? If yes, please submit the CMCSS High School Volunteer hours form to school counseling. Students must submit a completed form documenting 10 volunteer hours per semester of high school to the school counseling office no later than the first day of exams (Friday, May 19). The hours for the CMCSS High school volunteer recognition cannot be used for other organizations such as honor societies that also require volunteer hours. This policy just came into effect this school year. Documentation began in the 2016-2017 school year.

Bird Surveying Inc. of Clarksville is looking for seniors who may be interested in going directly into the workforce after graduation. They are currently looking to train surveyors as well as to train someone in AutoCAD. Interested students can contact Ms. Bobbie Jean Lampkin, Marketing Manager at 931-906-0040 for more information. Resumes are required.

Montgomery County Government is now accepting applications for the Mayor's Emerging Leaders program. In the Mayor's Emerging Leaders program, students may apply to serve as ex-officio members of the various County Government committees in the upcoming 2017-2018 school year, learning first-hand how local government works. Chosen students will be notified by mail in May. Applications are due no later than May 5 and are available at www.mcgtn.org as well as in the school counseling office. For more information about the program, contact Holly Hoechstebach at 931-648-8482.

Kennedy Law Firm is now scheduling interviews for their summer intern program. The internship will run from 7am to 4pm May 30 to June 9. Are you interested in law, being a lawyer, or government? Do you want real hands on experience with client interviews, court and trial preparation? If so, this internship opportunity may be the right one for you. You can contact Sydney Litchfield or Shannon Kurtz at (931) 645-9000 for more information or to schedule an interview.

TN Promise Seniors: Remember the community service deadline is July 1, 2017. Submit hours at <https://tnachieves.org>
