Happenings from the Castle

LAST WEEK:

~ Students finished their 2nd nine weeks grade level meetings.

~Students celebrated the kick off for the basketball season with a pep rally where teachers competed on the court.

~Students with less than 10 points for negative behavior were able to attend a Harvest dance event Friday during their related arts periods.

THIS WEEK:

~Students in Academic Transitions will receive a letter informing parents about an error on their report cards related to a posted class zero.

~Students get Tuesday off for mid-term elections. Many of our local schools serve as polling places. Please take a moment to vote during this important local and state election.
